Most of my current work is with client systems:

- prepping for a university senior leadership retreat
 - planning for a next 6-month corporate leadership development cohort
- Stay tuned – I'm scheming a few new open enrollment options.

Invitations From Crocus

Fun to see the Crocus arriving,
as it is every year.

They are the first of the flowering bulbs in my garden that find their way to blossom.

They hold my attention,
inviting a bit of wonder,
and beauty.

They invite my commitment,
to a day of wonder,
and beauty,

in the things on my calendar,
and to the unplanned spaces between.
