New Workshops

I'm delighted to be creating and offering new workshops these days. Some I'm doing with clients in person. Some I'm doing with open-enrollment online workshops. Like the one in August, Leading With Gifts & Passions. Or like the one on September 28th, Deep-Diving With Circle & Story.

Some of the why, in short, is that I see too many people these days in one or all of the following: 1) frustrated in complexity, 2) pressured by urgency, and 3) stuck in confusion.

I believe there are many of us that work with groups of people — teams, communities, organizations, families — that want to evolve what we do and how we do it to something better. Something that better dignifies wisdom and heart.

The last several months have been a time of re-creation for me and those that I'm with. Clarifying purpose. Emboldening heart. Strengthening simplified approach.

Reach out to me to explore what some of that might look like, thinking together, with you or your groups.
